RESPIRATORY THERAPY

PROGRAM LENGTH: 20 MONTHS
Murray (Salt Lake City) Campus

Breathe new life into your career

Take a deep breath. Now let it out. Feels good, doesn't it? Breathing is something most of us take for granted, but many people have difficulty breathing on a daily basis. With the right degree in respiratory therapy, you could launch a healthcare career and help others breathe more easily. You might even save someone's life!

Program objectives

Our associate's degree program in respiratory therapy is designed to help you gain the clinical and laboratory skills you need to start a successful career as a respiratory therapist. This degree offers practical, hands-on learning through clinical experience under the direct supervision of practicing respiratory therapists in real-world settings.

With your degree and proper certification,¹ you'll be qualified to work in a wide variety of healthcare settings, including hospitals, clinics, long-term care facilities, and sleep disorder treatment centers.

Why choose Stevens-Henager College?

Stevens-Henager College provides the degree you need for the career you want—on your terms and on your schedule. You can go to class days or evenings, whichever works best for you, and get the flexibility of hybrid classroom or online² courses.

Our degree programs are career-focused, without elective courses that you don't need or want. Complete your associate's degree in as few as 20 months!

And, because Stevens-Henager College is smaller than most traditional colleges and universities, you can get more personalized attention and support from your instructors, tutors, advisors, and deans when you need it.
